Internationalization in Action: Benefits for Research, Teaching, and the University

The International Office – Your Strategic Partner for Institutional Internationalization

International Projects

We can offer you guidance and support with the initiation, financing and implementation of your international research and teaching projects

- Initiating partnerships and partner matching
- Advice on internationalizing teaching: summer schools, virtual mobility, guest lectures, etc.
- Funding advice and support with applications, e.g. DAAD or Erasmus+
- Internationalization Fund of the International Office

Stays Abroad

Advice on stays abroad and the administration of funding programs such as Erasmus+ and STIBET

- Staff weeks, job shadowing
- Language courses and short stays abroad for research purposes
- Initiation and project trips

English Language Services

To support international cooperation, research, communication, and internal administration, the International Office offers a translation and editing service for English texts.

- Websites
- Documents
- International project applications
- Course material (editing/proofreading)
- Individual advice

Welcome Service

We go to great lengths to ensure international guests feel welcome during their visit to the FernUniversität in Hagen

Whether you're part of a delegation, a visiting scholar, or an international researcher, the Welcome Service offers support and guidance before and during your stay at the FernUniversität.
