

Non-uniform discretization for the approximation of specific elliptic SPDE

Abstract We study the Besov regularity as well as nonlinear approximation of the solution of a Poisson equation with a right-hand side given as a random function. The random function is given in terms of a wavelet expansion, which is generated by a stochastic model that provides an explicit control of its Besov regularity.